"Having been lucky enough to spend a couple of hours testing out the Niche Zero I can honestly say I am amazed by its performance. I've used a fair few grinders both commercial and domestic and in so many ways this just outshines them all. It's incredibly well designed, very simple to use and works amazingly well.

I have been looking for a new grinder for use at home and I believe I have found it...the Niche Zero, I'm just a little worried I'll be wanting one for use at work also!

Honestly, I still can't quite believe what I saw in the way of consistency and grind retention... such a minuscule amount of coffee remains in the grinder you could easily just chose to ignore it, or if you're really worried just pop an extra bean in...it really is that good!"
